SOCIETY

Celebrating the 15th anniversary of its organization, the Grandmothers' circle held a most interesting and enjoyable meeting Thursday all day with Mrs. L. E. Hood, 1107 E. Carroll st. Covers were placed for 16 at dinner which was served at the noon hour. The table was very prettily appointed in red and white, and centered with a basket of fruit. In the afternoon other members of the club called, increasing the number of guests to 22. The time was very pleasantly spent with an exchange of Christmas gifts and an old fashioned "grab bag".

At its organization, the club numbered 12 members, five of whom are still living. They are Mrs. B. F. Yerrick, Mrs. L. E. Hood, Mrs. Anna McDoom, Mrs. Mary Best and Mrs. Lucinda Heck. All of the members are now over 70 years old and many of them as old as 80.

The next meeting of the club will be held Jan. 7 with Mrs. Yerrick, Miami st.

Miss Etta Van Dusen entertained with an informal dinner Thursday evening at the Oliver hotel, commencing Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reimold of Buffalo, N. Y., who are guests of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Reimold, 230 N. Lafayette st. Covers were placed for eight guests. Mr. and Mrs. Reimold will leave for the west today to spend the winter.

Mrs. Elmer Crockett, 627 W. Cuyahoga av., entertained the Home Girls' Bible class Thursday afternoon. About 40 girls spent the afternoon dressing dolls for charity followed by a lesson conducted by Mrs. Alma O. Ware. Light refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. Music was furnished by Miss Dorothy Koegan. The class will meet next Thursday.

The sewing circle of the German Zion church met Thursday afternoon at the parish school with an attendance of nearly 100 ladies. The hostesses were Mrs. Edward Schumack and Mrs. Edward Weiss. Sewing furnished the occupation for the afternoon and a light luncheon was served by the hostesses. The society will meet Dec. 17 at the parish school.

The Young People's Bible class of the southeastern part of the city met Thursday evening with Mrs. A. Swanson, S. Main st. Attendance was large. The lesson for the evening was the 11th chapter of the book of Genesis and was conducted by Mrs. Swanson. Miss Hazel White, Pennsylvania av., will entertain the class next Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. MacGregor, 625 Cushing st., pleasantly entertained members of the Swastika and O. D. T. clubs Thursday afternoon. Needlework was enjoyed by the 12 guests and at the close of the afternoon the hostess served a dainty luncheon. The Swastika club will meet Dec. 17 with Mrs. A. I. Rogers, Blaine av., and the O. D. T. club on the same date with Mrs. Tony Swanson of River Park.

With every promise of being one of the most interesting of the many departments of the Progress club, the evening social opened Thursday evening with a meeting at the club rooms at 7:45 o'clock. Miss Gene Thompson of the public speaking department of the high school will conduct the study for the year, which will be devoted to the drama and dramatic art. The preliminary study was a discussion of the comparison between ancient and modern drama in order to more fully understand the viewpoint and general nature of the modern. At the next meeting of the department which will be held Dec. 17 at the club rooms, the matter to be touched upon will be the question of ideals in the modern drama. At the same time the club will study "Brand", one of the dramas by Henry Gibson. Meetings will take place on alternate Thursdays at 7:45 o'clock.

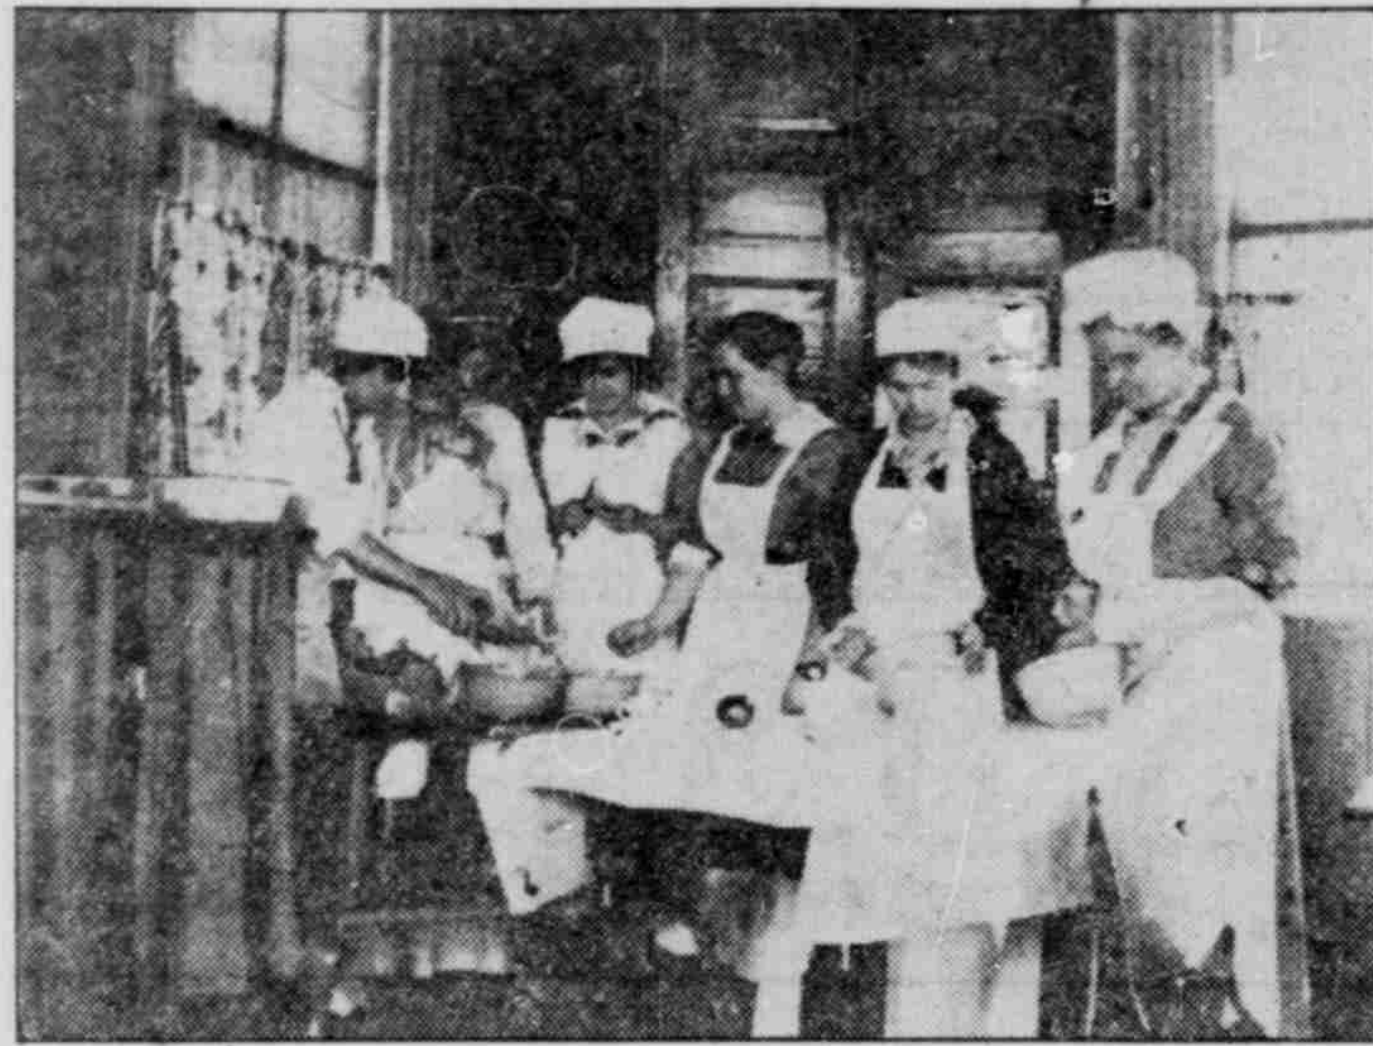

The Ladies' Aid society of the English Lutheran church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Q. N. Taggart, 1719 S. Michigan st. After the regular business meeting a social time was enjoyed and a light luncheon served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. Raab, Mrs. C. J. Reimold of Buffalo, N. Y., was an out of town guest. The society will meet the first Thursday in January with Mrs. E. Wener, 807 N. Cushing st.

Mrs. J. W. Bucks, 614 E. South st., was hostess to the Ladies' Aid society of Mizpah Evangelical church Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent with a business meeting followed by a social time with refreshments. The next meeting will be held Jan. 7.

The Modern Beehive club was pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. Mell, 726 W. LaSalle av. Sewing occupied the afternoon and the hostess served a dainty luncheon at its close. Mrs. Morris, 617 N. Adams st., will entertain the club Dec. 17.

Mrs. A. M. Sweetland, 510 Michigan av., was hostess to the Circle of Mercy Thursday afternoon. The attendance was large. Time was devoted to the consideration of a number of charity cases and plans made for the "pound" party which will be given Dec. 17 in the library of St. Patrick's hall. Each member of the

Teachers Will Discuss Domestic Science Saturday

Domestic science will be the feature of the meeting of the institute by the Centre township teachers at the Palmer's Prairie school, to be held next Saturday afternoon. Miss Ennid Hupp, the teacher of the school, is asking all of the women of the district to be present and take part in a discussion on the domestic science subject.

At the meeting of the institute in November, when the first work of this kind was introduced by Miss Hupp, there were more than fifty women present, all taking part in the discussions, as well as in the work itself. Pastry was the principal subject taken up. Miss Hupp gave an interesting lecture on it and it was followed by talks from others, and by putting together the best processes given by the different ones excellent results were acquired. The school is fully equipped with the necessary utensils for cooking, these being obtained by showers given by the patrons of the district. This school is the only one at present in the township that is fully equipped for the domestic science work, although the other schools are beginning work of the same kind. Needle work will be open for discussion and all will be asked to express their views on that subject.

The society of Grace Evangelical church Thursday afternoon. After a business meeting the guests enjoyed a social afternoon. Miss Norma Wernitz adding to the enjoyment with several piano selections. A light luncheon was served. The society will meet Jan. 7 with Mrs. Edward Rettig, 1006 E. Madison av.

"Stunt day," the one day in the year when the Progress club gets down off its dignity, will be observed Saturday afternoon when, at the general meeting, each department will contribute to the entertainment some ludicrous performance, burlesquing either the activities of their own department or of the general club. The program as announced by the president includes a specimen mothers' meeting by the Mothers' department; "Ballad of the Ego," by section two of the Literature department; a "tribute" and a "medley" by section one of the department of Literature; letter from a member by the Philanthropy department; lecture, "What is Art?" by the Art department; news of the Progress club by the Current Events department; Creators Persimmons' orchestra, presenting Maude Powell, Paderevski, Leland Powers and Madame Galski, by the Music department. That the afternoon will be a rare frolic goes without saying.

Miss Marie Granger and Miss Gertrude Robertson, 1614 S. Fellows st., entertained the D. I. Pedro club very pleasantly Thursday afternoon. Cards were enjoyed as usual at two tables and favors awarded Mrs. E. Farrel, Mrs. Joseph Kasek and Mrs. John Frank. Luncheon was served late in the afternoon. Mrs. W. Griesinger, N. Scott st., will entertain the club Dec. 17.

The Pastime club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. H. C. Moore, S. Fellows st. Social diversions occupied the afternoon and luncheon was served by Mrs. Moore. The next meeting of the club will be the occasion of the annual Christmas party on Dec. 17 at the home of Mrs. Charles Sellers, 1614 S. Fellows st.

Members of the Ideal Embroidery club were delightfully entertained Thursday all day by Mrs. John Inwood, 511 S. Main st. The entire day was spent socially with piano selections by several members of the club. A delicious dinner was served at the noon hour. Mrs. Fred Lobach, Miami st., road will entertain the club Dec. 17.

The Aid society of Trinity M. E. church held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Romine, 1118 Vassar av. Nearly 40 women were in attendance. Following a brief business meeting an interesting program was rendered which consisted of readings by Mrs. F. L. Axtell, Mrs. Talley of Mishawaka and Miss Rose Hershenow and piano selections by Mrs. Lawrence Romine and Miss Helen Gail. During a social hour light refreshments were served by the hostess. The society will meet Jan. 7 with Mrs. W. H. Hillman, 1043 Portage av.

The regular meeting of the Wide Awake Girls was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Bernice McPherson, Cottage Grove av. The time was pleasantly spent with games and music with refreshments at the close of the afternoon. Corinne Seegmueler, 520 Allen st., will entertain the club next Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. William Wernitz, 744 Sherman av., was hostess to the Ladies' Aid trude Fisher entertained informally Thursday evening at Miss Granger's home, 118 Pennsylvania av. The evening was spent with games and contests the favors going to Miss Blanche Becher and Miss Lyle Kindig. Dainty refreshments were served.
